GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Competition for premiums is open to residents of this county and adjoining counties if their fair accepts exhibits from residents of this county on a reciprocal basis.

2. The Society will not assume any responsibility for disease, sickness, injury, loss, or damage to exhibits contracted during the fair.

- 3. No person will be permitted to distribute advertising matter on the grounds or demonstrate issue except in the designated area. The tacking or posting of any advertisements, or distribution of bills, cards, fliers, etc., except within the space occupied by the exhibitor is prohibited. Anyone violating this rule will be liable to fine and expulsion from the grounds as the Board of Directors may elect.
- 4. If, for any reason whatsoever, the general receipts of the Society are reduced or diminished then the Society does not guarantee full payment of premiums listed in this book.
- 5. The management will not be responsible for typographical errors in this book but, should any occur, same will be interpreted by the Board of Directors. 6. The Board of Directors reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regula-
- tions and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out 7. Any person knowingly violating any of the rules of this Society will thereby forfeit all rights to
- any premiums that may be awarded to him.
- 8. The management will consider it a kindness if any person will report any mistreatment, extortion, or questionable or demoralizing practice by anyone.

ENTRY PROCEDURES AND EXHIBITS

- 1. The Society reserves the right to limit the number of entries if space is unavailable. The management will endeavor to arrange for space for all qualified exhibitors. However, if present accommodations are exhausted, the management reserves the right to close entries at any time.
- 2. Exhibits shall be in place by 7:00 p.m. entry day except 4-H home economics and other 4-H non-livestock exhibits. No exhibit shall be removed until 8:00 a.m. Sunday or exhibitor will forfeit
- 3. Stock and articles must be entered in the name of the bonafide owners.
- 4. No person shall enter an article that has heretofore been exhibited and a premium paid thereon in the same lot except in certain designated classes.
- 5. All articles exhibited must be the property of the exhibitor and except in designated classes must be made, manufactured, or raised during the past 12 months by the exhibitor.
- 6. No more than one entry can be made in the same lot by any exhibitor. When more than one entry is made from the same farm or by the same family, proof of ownership must be shown to the superintendent of that division.
- 7. No article will be allowed to compete for cash premiums that is not named and numbered in the premium list. Articles not listed may be classed by approval of the division supervisor. A request can be made to the Board of Directors to make provisions for additional classes or lots in succeeding
- 8. Exhibitors will be furnished with cards containing exhibitor, number, division, class and lot designation and description of the article. Such cards must be attached to or in close contact with the article to which they belong.

District 2 (Arendahl, Holt, Norway, Rushford, Pilot Mound Twps): Kyle Chiglo, Doug Lind, Mike

Justin Johnson, Greg Dornink

District 5 (Amherst, Canton, Harmony, Newburg, Preble Twps): Lowell Drinkall, Karl Housker,

9. Exhibitors must obey the Rules and Regulations governing public exhibition of livestock and poultry in Minnesota as adopted and approved by the Attorney General. For further information regarding these rules see the Fair Veterinarian or division superintendent.

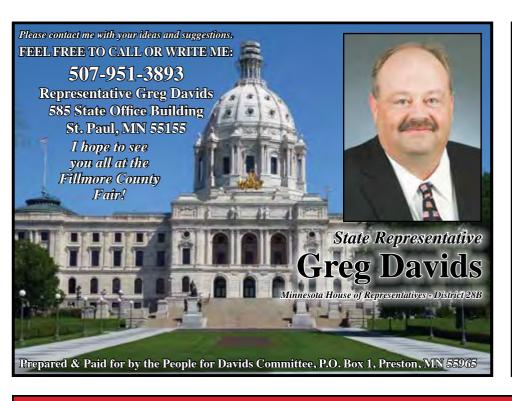

- 10. Each person exhibiting livestock must present to the Secretary a certificate of health before the entry is accepted.
- 11. Stalls and pens must be properly cleaned and presentable at all times.
- 12. Grain and field seeds shall be exhibited in baskets or sacks free from any personal advertising. Unless otherwise designated, an exhibit shall consist of one peck by dry measure.
- 13. All roots shall be cleaned and trimmed for exhibition.

- 1. Judging in all departments will begin on Wednesday and continue until completed.
- 2. Awards shall be designated by ribbons or cards as follows: Championship purple; First -blue: Second - red; Third - white. 3. The superintendent or assistant of a division shall assist the awarding judges as clerk and shall
- make a written entry on the record of award made. This record when completed shall be signed by the judges and returned to the secretary. 4. The superintendent of each division shall check to see that each article entered on the record
- book is present and properly arranged before the judges proceed to place the entries. If an article cannot be found, the judges should be so informed.
- 5. Any interference by the exhibitor to influence or dictate the decisions of the judges will be sufficient cause for excluding his or her entry from competition and must be reported to the Secretary by the superintendent of the division.
- 6. The superintendent of a division may request the judge in his division to state the reasons for awards if such a request is made by an exhibitor or spectator.
- 7. The decision of the judges shall be final in all cases except where mistake, fraud, or misrepresenting not discovered at the time the award is made, is apparent. In such cases the Board of lecision is final
- 8. An exhibitor may make a written protest of a decision of a judge to the superintendent of the division within three hours after the time the award was made.
- 9. All protests shall be settled by the Board of Directors at a meeting when all parties concerned will be notified to appear.
- 10. No former prize winnings are to be displayed before judging in the class is completed.

PREMIUMS

- 1. Premiums will be mailed out within ninety days after the close of the fair. Claims for errors in premium checks must be made within fifteen days of the date of checks. Checks not cashed within thirty days from the date of issue will be considered forfeited to the Society.
- 2. Where there is no competition, first premium may be awarded but money paid will be based on recommendations of the judge relative to the merit of the exhibit. No awards will be made if the exhibit does not merit an award.
- 3. Premiums will not be awarded for articles or animals of inferior merit, although there is no competition.

Livestock known by the exhibitor to have an infectious, communicable disease or to have been exposed to an infectious, communicable disease, or to be from a quarantined herd or flock may not be entered in the exhibition. Warts and ringworm are considered communicable diseases. Therefore, livestock affected by these diseases cannot be exhibited. A statement from a veterinarian that an animal is being treated for these diseases is not acceptable.

All livestock may be inspected by the Official Veterinarian on the opening day of the exhibition, and daily during the exhibition. The Official Veterinarian will order the immediate removal to a quarantine facility or removal from the exhibition premises of any livestock with symptoms of infectious or communicable diseases. Animals placed in a quarantine facility must remain there until removed from the exhibition premises. They may not enter a show ring. This includes livestock with warts or ringworm.

All testing must be conducted prior to the exhibition, and a record of the test results on a test chart or Intrastate Certificate of Veterinary Inspection must accompany the tested animals. No out of state

In 2020, Weiss Realty sold over 260 rural properties in Eastern Minnesota and Western Wisconsin. No other brokerage in the bluff country can match our results! The past year's pandemic events have created more demand for rural properties than ever before. Despite what you hear about the economy in the news, we continue to have more and more qualified buyers looking for new properties! With all the uncertainty, what better to time convert real estate assets to cash?

WE CAN SELL YOURS TOO!
